Purdue Film Festival Purchasing Form:

Name of Item:

Price of Item:

Quantity:

Amazon link/URL/Place of purchase:

Purpose of Purchase/Description of product:

*One purchase request can have multiple items on it, as long as the total price of the items does not exceed the allotted total per team. Each team will only have 1 opportunity to submit a purchasing request form. The tentative budget for purchasing is 400 dollars (possibly 30 per team), but will be finalized after callout and entry forms have been submitted.
Rules and Regulations for Producers and Directors (Film Checklist)

1. Film must be a minimum of 2 minutes, and exceed no more than 10 minutes

2. Film must include these three things: (1) a rose, (2) the line “I have a question. How dare you?” and (3) a person in a strange hat must appear on screen at some time throughout the film. These things DO NOT have to be the center of attention for the film, and can be incorporated as subtly or as obviously as possible (but most importantly, creatively, as the incorporation of these things will be a judging factor)
   a. When the film is submitted you must submit a record of where these three things are referenced throughout your film

3. Final film must be submitted in two forms: DVD (to the PSUB office) and YouTube link (sent in an email)

4. Film must match the description of its chosen category chosen completely
   a. Comedy: Entertainment consisting of jokes and satirical sketches, intended to make an audience laugh. Forms of comedy include situation comedy, satire, slapstick, and sitcoms. Some examples of comedies include "Modern Family", Airplane!, Anchorman, and Spy
   b. Documentary/Mockumentary: A nonfictional motion picture intended to document some aspect of reality, primarily for the purposes of instruction or maintaining a historical record. Mockumentaries are fictional events presented in documentary style to create a parody. Examples of documentaries include Steve Jobs: The Man in the Machine and Monkey Kingdom. Examples of mockumentaries include "The Office" and "Parks & Recreation".
   c. Drama: An exciting, emotional, or unexpected series of events or set of circumstances. Any event or series of events having vivid, conflicting elements that capture one's interest involving conflict or contrast of characters. Some forms of drama include action, syfy, romance, horror and adventure stories (among others). Examples include The Godfather, The Shawshank Redemption, Titanic, and The Dark Knight.

Note that some films may fall into more than one category. It is up to the students of the film to choose which category they want their work to be judged in.

5. Film must be created by full time Purdue students, with a maximum of five members per team. There can be however many actors involved in the film as needed, however, only a maximum of five Purdue students will be recognized and receive credit from the festival

6. Film must be a live action production (no fully animated films)
2012 Purdue Student Union Board Film Festival Rules

1. All contestants must be 18 years of age or older to participate, and have legal proof of identification including name, address, and phone number.

2. The film must be produced or created by full time Purdue students (carrying at least 12 credit hours)

3. Winners are responsible for tax liability, which may be incurring by accepting a prize.

4. The Purdue Student Union Board (PSUB) reserves the right to use the winner’s names, voices, and/or films in future PSUB related events not limited to Movie on the Hill.

5. All decisions by PSUB are final and non-negotiable, and all decisions made on the day of the contest are final and non-negotiable.

6. All students wishing to compete in this event must submit their film on or before February 5th, 2016 at 6:00 PM EST. Films must be turned into the PSUB office in the Purdue Memorial Union Room 268. We will watch each student’s film and select those to be shown at the festival.

7. Entry Forms will be due by November 18th to the PMU 268.

8. If your submission meets all regulations, you will be contacted after February 8th, 2016.

9. This event will be held on February 27th, 2016 from 7:00-10:00 PM EST in Fowler at the Stewart Center.

10. All prizes must be claimed in thirty business days, from the date of the win. Any prize not claimed in that time period will revert to PSUB. Prizes are non-transferable.

11. Contest rules are available on the Purdue Student Union Board office Room 268 of the Purdue Memorial Union and online at www.union.purdue.edu/PSUB.

12. PSUB reserves the right to amend these rules at any time without notice.

13. PSUB will not be responsible for any damaged, lost or stolen equipment.

14. Awards will be determined by the audience’s popular vote and Judges.

15. Please keep in mind that this a family oriented event so refrain from producing or creating films with excessive violence, sex, drugs, foul language, thematic material, and adult activities.
Performance Evaluation (Comedy and Drama):

Name: __________________________________________

Creativity: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Plot: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Cinematography: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Acting: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Costumes: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Sound: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Visual effects: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Challenge Incorporation: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Additional Comments:

Performance Evaluation (Documentary/Mockumentary):

Name: __________________________________________

Creativity: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Plot: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Cinematography: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Proof of Research: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Clarity of Information: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Sound: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Visual effects: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Challenge Incorporation: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Additional Comments:
Judging Category Descriptions:

Creativity – Inclusion of original and imaginative ideas and work

Plot – The pace, flow, and ease of understanding of the storyline

Cinematography – Quality of lighting, camera work and shots, and framing

Proof of Research – Proof that information presented throughout the work is backed up and reliable

Clarity of Information – The presentation and ease of understanding of information

Acting – Quality of performance of actors

Costumes – Quality, creativity, and presentation of props and costume materials

Sound – Quality of sound, effectiveness and incorporation of sound effects

Visual Effects – Quality of any computer generated effects, as well as camera effects

Challenge Incorporation – Creativity and quality of presentation of the challenges
PSUB Film Festival 2016 Entry Form
(Due November 18th to PMU 268)

Film Title: _______________________________________________________

Contact Person: ________________________________________________

Address: _______________________________________________________

Check off category you would like to compete in

☐ Drama  ☐ Documentary/Mockumentary  ☐ Comedy

City: __________________________________________________________

State: ________________ Zip: ________________

Cell Phone Number: ____________________________________________

Email: _________________________________________________________

Names, years, and majors of Purdue Students involved (max 5):

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

Short Synopsis of Film (less than 100 words):

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________